The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday January 18. to Tuesday January 22. 1731.

Moscow, December 20, O. S.

THE 17th Instant, at Five of the Clock in the Morning, all the Guards were drawn up before the Palace, and about Ten all the great Officers and Nobility went to the great Church, and took a new Oath to be faithful to the Czarina, and to him or her whom her Majesty shall please to name to succeed her. All the Guards took the same Oath, and a Manifesto was published. Most of the Foreign Ministers are already set out for Petersbourg, to be there against the 19th of January, which is the Day her Majesty has let them know she would be glad to see them there. On the 18th Instant the Dutchess of Mecklenbourg set out for Petersbourg.

Hague, Jan. 29, N. S. On Friday last the States of the Province of Holland came to a Resolution to accede to the Treaty of Vienna; which Resolution was the next Day reported to the States General, where the Deputies of Utrecht, Overyssell, Frize, and Gueldres, declared themselves ready to concur in it. Those of Zealand and Groningen desired Time to consult their respective Provinces, who are to assemble on Monday next; to which the other Provinces agreed.
